

Vatican announcement to replace child education in the families by “educational village”

T. De Mees

On the way to a totalitarian control?

We have been shocked by the announcement by the Pope Francis to replace education in the families by an “educational village”. (In singular tense).

Already now, children are placed as soon as possible in kindergarten and schools. The parents are both working. Few time is left for a calm family life.

Jesus Christ would never have destroyed the family life, the values of the parents in their family to teach the children. It is one of the central aims of Christianity.

I cannot imagine that other public religions would be different.

And now, that isn't important any more, worse, has to be replaced by an “education village”? Is this the way to start separating the children from the parents as in the Third Reich?

Please read it here:

Excerpts:

“I wish to endorse a global event, to take place on 14 May 2020 on the theme Reinventing the Global Compact on Education. .../...

Never before has there been such need to unite our efforts in a broad educational alliance,.../...

We have to create such a village before we can educate..../...”

He then refers to a document that he signed with “Al-Azhar al-Sharif and the Muslims of the East and West”, in which he defines:

“the architects of international policy and world economy”

Can anyone tell me who these are, the architects of international policy? The architects of world economy? The Rothschilds?

The plan is to generate globalized “convergence” (read: dictated) teachings. Of religion, but apparently including economy and government.

This Pope is a Jesuit and a Freemason of the highest grade. What is his plan? By whom is he controlled and who does he control to enforce this?

Are we talking of the New World Order, as claimed by father George Bush and Kissinger, with a totalitarian One-World religion, economy and One-World government?
